FRIDAY'S NOON NEWS.

CIGAR MAKERS RESCIND—THE TROTTING TURF—TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR CHARITY.

NEW YORK, February 6.—The Bowery and up town cigar manufacturers, at a secret meeting last night, resolved to rescind their action of last week in conceding to the demands of the workmen and giving an increase of one dollar per thousand. It has been discovered that a number of down town manufacturers have had secret understanding with their men to work at a reduction of twenty-five per cent. per thousand, by which means they were enabled to undersell up town manufacturers. This action will undoubtedly lead to a general strike next week.

The National Trotting Association adopted a rule to-night, that where horses which could have won was unfairly driven so as to lose the heat, shall be declared void and the horse owner expelled from the association.

Amasa Sprague was elected President of the Trotting Turf Association last night.

A committee was appointed to confer with the railroad companies to make arrangements to have men and horses transported at reduced rates.

The receipts of a charity ball here last night were $20,000.

EVANSVILLE FIRE.

EVANSVILLE, IND, February 6.—Full particulars of the burning of Chris Meners' house and attending fatality show that but four persons were burned to death, and several others were badly burned. The details show the sufferings of the victims to have been horrible. There were, when the fire broke out, about ten persons in the house Mrs. Meher seized two of the children and rushed through the flames, and a boarder seized another of the children. Mr. Meher rushed out and seeing that some of his children were missing, again ran into the house, and was not again seen alive. When found he had clasped in his arms the three children who had been left behind, the four bodies being burned almost to a cinder. These four were the only persons burned to death. Most of the other persons were more or less burned.

THE STAGE

TWO ACTRESSES BADLY BURNED.

PHILADELPHIA, February 6.—Last evening two ballet dancers, named Miss Hays and Miss Lee, attaches of Mortimer's Varieties Theatre, were badly burned. The former was in the green room before the curtain arose, and her dress caught fire from the stove. She ran on the stage, and the flames from her dress communicated to that of Miss Lee. Both were badly burned about the bodies, although the injuries, it is believed, will not prove fatal.

LYNCHED FOR MURDER.

CAIRO, ILL, February 6.—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Irvin started for Carbondale with Charles Wyatt, the negro charged with the murder of Mrs. Rvan, but learning that a crowd was collected at Carbondale with the intention of lynching his prisoner, Irwin left the cars below Carbondale and took Wyatt to Murpheysboro, county seat of Jackson county. Last night a crowd of four or five hundred men visited the jail and forcibly took possession of the prisoner and hung him. Wyatt confessed his guilt before his death.

ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

LONDON, February 5.—Rioting was general yesterday in the pottery district of Staffordshire. At Hantry there was a desperate fight between two mobs, one man killed and many persons severely wounded. Among the injured are several special constables and policemen. At Tundall the authorities closed all public houses. The mob seized the ballot boxes, which were recaptured by the police. Similar scenes were enacted at Longton and Burstelem, the Mayor of Wolverhampton and Magistrate of South Staffordshire, telegraphed late yesterday afternoon for military aid, asking for the immediate dispatch of all the available troops in Ireland. The feeling runs high between the clerical and nationist parties, especially in Limerick county. A fight occurred yesterday between supporters of the rival candidates in Asheron, in which fire arms were used and three men shot dead. Ashbury and Shutt, Conservatives, have been elected at Brighton, which was represented in the last Parliament by Fawcett and White, advanced Liberals. Fawcett yesterday stood at the bottom of the polls. The polling in Manchester resulted in the election of two Conservatives and the re-election of Sir Thomas Bassely, Liberal. Jacob Bright stood at the bottom of the poll, and the Conservatives gained one seat. The Liberals gain a seat at Blackburn, and the Conservatives hold their own at Salford.

Jackson's Magic Balsam
—THE—
Great Master of Pain,

THE PROOF:
ATLANTA, GA., November 18, 1873.
P. Van Alstine, Esq., Barnesville, Ga.:
DEAR SIR—You must excuse me for this outburst of praise for your invaluable medicine, and thanks to you for placing it within my reach. Let me tell you about it: To-night, after supper, I was attacked with a very acute pain in my right side. I had felt it coming on for several days, but it did not reach a focus until to-night, and of all intense pains, it was the worst I ever had. Having tried your Balsam before for different ailments and found it equal to any emergency, I went down suffering as we exonciating pain as I went along and paid my last quarter for a small bottle of Jackson's Magic Balsam. It was with the greatest difficulty I reached home. The medicine was applied to the hurting place, and in a few minutes after the application, I took my pencil, and while I scribble these lines for you the pain has disappeared, leaving me as happy as the usual sun flower, and another dose of the Magic Truck is in the bottle ready for any pain that might arise. I only wish you as much good luck as your Balsam is efficious, and that is a great deal.
Yours truly,
B. W. SMITH,

Brevities.

New York has over 800 accidental deaths annually.

Two million bushels of peanuts are yearly eaten in the United States.

Punch defines the "Home Circuit" as "walking about with the baby at night."

The new Duchess of Edinburgh is to receive from Parliament a dower of £75,000 and £9,000 a year.

The Siamese Twins did business for a long time under the firm name of E. & C. Bunker.

The Persians say of noisy, unreasonable talk: "I hear the sound of the millstone, but I see no meal."

There were some very melancholy circumstances connected with Carl Benson's death—he had an income of $60,000 a year.

New fashioned wedding cards are long and narrow, and have the initials or monograms in the left hand corner.

Two days are to be devoted to the carnival in New Orleans. It opens Monday, the 16th, with free matinees at all the theatres

A hand-organ is the latest excavation at Pompeii. The ancients had their torments as well as the moderns.

Twenty-one years ago a factory girl deposited $175 in the Lowell (Mass) Savings Bank. She recently called for her money and received $786.

It is consoling to aspirants for the Chief-Justiceship to know that Mr. Waite's grandfather reached ninety, and his father eighty, and he is not yet sixty.

General Wm. S. Harney, U. S. A., is in Washington, and is a guest of the President. He must be very old. In Mexico his head was as white as snow.

The daily newspapers in the United Kingdom sum up as follows in 1874: London, 24; Provinces, 72; Ireland, 18; Scotland, 13; Wales, 3; Channel Islands, 2—total, 131.

Spotted Tail occupied a box in the theatre at Cheyenne, Wyoming, a few nights since. 'Tis thus that the march of civilization overtakes the savage and prowling red man.

A firm in St. Louis has just received nineteen car loads of barley from San Francisco, which cost $1 60 per bushel delivered. The freight is about the same per bushel as the grain costs in California.

Brete Harte, it is said, can command a higher price for his work than any literary man in the metropolis. Scribner's Monthly has paid him as much as $100 a page, and like a sensible man he would take more if he could get it.

A young lady had coquetted until the victim was completely exhausted. He rose to go away. She whispered, as she accompanied him to the door, "I shall be at home next Sunday evening." "So shall I," he replied.

The Appropriations Committee of Congress express the design to bring the expenditures this year down to $275,000,000, instead of $300,000,000 reported to be expended last year. This, if not undone by unconstitutional deficiency bills next winter, will be a great step in the right direction, though by no means all that could or should be accomplished.

The Regular Army.

In these days of promised retrenchment by an unloading party, the army does not escape a share of public comment and public indignation. Many astonishing facts concerning its organization are coming to light. The annual depletion of the rank and file is 10,400 men out of less than 30,000. In other words, the army has to be renewed every two years and ten months. Not exactly, however, for there are 2,334 commissioned officers who stand the fire with a constancy that is remarkable.

The only renewal in their cases consists of pay and allowances. To pay 2,284 officers to manage less than fifteen times their number, and then have the latter desert at the rate of thirty a day, is, we confess, piling it rather heavy on the nation's tax-payers. The bill that we are asked to pay this year to sustain this much officered establishment amounts to $34 881,618!

In the light of the statistics of desertion the army does not seem to be a very desirable model for the militia of the States, although General Sherman, in his last report says that it wists to watch and wallop the Indians, and lastly and chiefly as a model etc. As a system of constant recruiting and constant desertion, under the eyes of 2,284 commissioned officers, it is a model; and it is not and cannot be in time of peace a model for much else, unless it be in the way of salutes and other innocent recreations. The national powder was lavishly burned at Jackson, for example, when Butler's son-in-law moved into Mississippi to become its Governor. As saluters the two thousand two hundred and eighty-four commissioned officers at the head of their short and melting ranks, are a glorious success. But the bill for salutes this year is too high considering the closeness of the times.

The National Grange.

The astonishing growth of the great order may be read in the fact that all the States in the Union, except four, are represented at the seventh annual session of the National Grange, and that, too, by the Masters of the powerful State Granges. The august body convened on Wednesday morning at the Southern Hotel in St. Louis, and its sessions are, of course, held with closed doors. A partial report, however, is furnished to the press. In this way we are informed that the Master of the State Grange of Missouri welcomed the National body to St. Louis. Mr. Saunders, Chairman of the Executive Committee responded, in behalf of the order, to the words of welcome. Committees on Finance, Auditing Accounts, Co-operation and Transportation, Good of the Order, and Business Agencies were then appointed. The Master of the National Grange, Dudley W. Adams, then read a lengthy address, replete with valuable suggestions, and detailing the operations of the Order during the past year. Reports were made by the Secretary, Treasurer, Lecturer, and Executive Committee, all of which were referred to appropriate committees.

Master—Dudley W. Adams, of Iowa
Overseer—Thomas Taylor, of South Carolina; Lecturer—T. A. Thompson, of Minnesota; Steward—A. J. Vaulin, of Mississippi; Assistant Steward—G. W. Thompson, of New Jersey; Chaplain—Rev. R. B. Crash, of Washington, D. C.; Treasurer—F. M. McDowell, of New York; Secretary—O. H. Kelley, of Washington, D. C.; Gate-keeper—O. Dinwiddie, of Indiana; Ceres—Mrs. D. W. Adams, of Iowa; Pomona—Mrs. O. H. Kelley, of Washington, D. C.; Flora—Mrs. J. C. Abbott, of Iowa; Executive Committee—W. M. Saunders, Washington, D. C.; D. W. Yates, Aiken, S. C.; E. B. Shankland, Iowa.

Legislative War Over the Street Railroad of Augusta.

In another column will be found a communication in regard to a bill now pending and under discussion in the House to repeal the charter of the Street Railroad Company of Augusta. The correspondent argues strongly against the repeal. The measure is creating much interest in Augusta.

☞ The interest of certain Senators and Congressmen in the repeal of the bankruptcy act seems to have very much diminished since it became evident that Jay Cooke & Co. would not be benefitted by it. It is now probable that the law will not be repealed, but only amended so as to secure greater honesty and fidelity in the practice under it. But for the prompt protest of the independent press the law would have been hastily wiped out, and the business community left without protection from speculating firms like Jay Cooke & Co.

☞ Ex-Governor James M. Harvey has been elected United States Senator from Kansas, to succeed Caldwell. His personal character is above reproach. No stain of corruption has been attached to him, and his election is regarded as a triumph of honesty and fairness in Kansas politics. Senator Harvey is a native of Virginia, and from the character attributed to him was doubtless born in or near Lynchburg!

Our Atlanta City Charter.

Last night the Atlanta City Council passed a resolution requesting the Legislature to allow the amendments to their charter to be submitted to the people of the city for ratification or rejection.

As the measure is one of exclusively local interest, and as there is no reason in this vast world why the people of Atlanta should not have their wish in the premises, we would respectfully urge upon the General Assembly to please let the amendments be fixed up as is desired by those who are to be affected by them.

The Senate passed the bill amending the charter, but struck out the clause submitting the matter to the people. And this was done in the face of the protest of our Senator.

The matter is too plain for argument. There is no ground for withholding from the people the right of ratification or rejection. Therefore, Messieurs Legislators, let us have it.

Atlanta.

Unreasonable abuse of the city of Atlanta will only make it friends. We clip the following from the Albany (Southwest Georgia) News:

Atlanta is perhaps the best abused city in the South. She has been abused steadily and with all the malignity of jealousy for six years on the capital question, though she was the only city in the State that gave a majority against the removal from Milledgeville, and against the present Constitution.

The other day she gave the State $60,000, and the interest thereon for seven years, and a whirlwind of abuse was projected at her for the act.

And now she proposes to donate grounds for a Capitol site, and the very floodgates of wrath and all the valves of bombasts are opened upon her.

We write for the truth of history, and the justice that history demands, and unless we are utterly incapable of drawing the distinction between right and wrong, the practice of abusing the Gate City is a "custom more honored in the breach than the observance."

Let another thing be remembered. When the great financial effort was made for the relief of the State through the sale of the Nutting bonds, the banks of Atlanta stepped forward and invested between one and two hundred thousand dollars in them, thus giving the first great impetus toward success.

Mr. H. I. Kimball.

From the Brunswick Appeal]

We learn that this gentleman, whose name became familiar to almost every tongue during his residence in this State, will soon return to Georgia.

* * * * * * *

That Mr. Kimball did much toward the enhancement of values and the development of the material resources of the State during his residence among us, almost every one is forced to admit. Of course much has been said as to how he did it, by persons who were not fully acquainted with all of his schemes. That there is no criminal or serious charges against him is evident, or he would never return to her soil to mingle among her people. By his indomitable energy he finished the Brunswick and Albany Railroad to the latter place, through almost a sterile waste bringing millions of dollars into the State to accomplish the grand work and enhancing the almost valueless pine region, through which the road extends for nearly two hundred miles, from two to one hundred fold. We have not computed the increased value of the lands along the line of this road, but we think we hazard nothing in saying that the increase of the intrinsic value of the lands lying within from five to ten miles of the road has been an average of at least fifty cents per acre, which is comparatively small estimated increase amount to millions of dollars. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been invested along the line of the road in steam saw mills, turpentine and other farms, and fixtures and improvements; and that which was heretofore comparatively valueless, has been and is being daily utilized and made to swell the total value of exports from Georgia.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

THE CONDITION OF THE CHEAP TRANSPORTATION MOVEMENT.

WASHINGTON, February 3, 1874.

The Southern and Western members of Congress have been for some time engaged in preparing a bill extending aid to national projects for internal improvements. It is now completed, and will be introduced in both Houses at an early day.

Nearly two hundred convicts are employed on the Memphis & Little Rock Railroad [illegible] build a mile of road per week.

Col. F. R. Fildes, formerly of the Quitman Banner will soon start a paper in Monticello, Fla., to be called The Constitution.

A negro, never known to tell a lie, who resides near Huntingdon, Tenn., says that he is the father of sixty-five children. Brigham Young is still one ahead.

The champion fowler of North Carolina is Mr. Summerell, of Northampton county. He has killed seventy-eight foxes from September last to the present date.

The Kentucky House of Representatives has, by a large majority, passed a local option law, submitting to the electors of any town or county the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor. And it doesn't make any exception of Bourbon either. This for the very home of Bourbon must be rewarded as a notable advance in the cause of temperance.

The Union (S. C.) Times prints the tax receipts for Texas upon eight hundred acres of land near Jonesville, in that county. They make the following exhibit: Taxes on 800 acres of land, 1867, $780; taxes on 800 acres of land, 1868, $68.00; taxes on 800 acres of land, 1873, $117.80. Thus, says the Charleston Courier, the taxes on one piece of property in Union county was increased eightfold during the first two years of Radical rule in this State, and fifteen-fold during the six years of its corrupt domination. The property upon which the above taxes were paid has not enhanced in value one dollar—in fact the buildings and fences are not as good as they were in 1867.

The New Orleans Picayune congratulated the Southern people that the curses which have been fastened upon them by reconstruction acts, are going home to roost. A large supply of these curses, in the shape of Alabama bonds, are roosting in Philadelphia and New York, and the holders are likely to keep them for some time to come. So in South Carolina. The New Yorkers are reaping the fruits of their rapacity, in the shape of millions of bonds which are practically worthless. In North Carolina, where nearly $30,000,000 of bonds were issued since the war, the curses have also "gone home," and the bonds are now selling at from 13 to 50 cents, and it is proposed to pay them off at an average of 25 to 30 cents on the dollar. A similar state of affairs exist in Arkansas and Louisiana, and it seems that the carpet-baggers and their Northern backers have overreached themselves, and that in attempting to rob and impoverish the South, they have simply burnt their own fingers, and the prospect is that they won't realize enough on their bonds to pay for the ointment necessary to cure the burn.

A gentleman occupied an upper berth in a certain section, and a lady the lower. In that dim, uncertain daylight which dawns on travelers in heavily-curtained "sleepers" the gentleman above referred to tried to find his boots, but nowhere about his narrow bed could he see more than one of them. Looking downwards he thought he saw another on the berth below him; so reaching down he tried to lift it up. Strange to say, it lifted to a certain height and then fell from his hand. He tried again with the same result, and yet again with no better luck, when suddenly the boot apparently became endued with life and evaded his grasp. Then the situation flashed upon him and he became contrite. Contrition is a good thing, but it may also become a nuisance, for fancy the gentleman in the upper berth apologizing to the lady in the lower for mistaking her boot on her own foot for his own.

ST. AUGUSTINE.

The Old Place is Fast Becoming Modern.

is fast losing its Spanish characteristics, and the changes which have been made during the last six years are startling. If the hand of the incoming Northerner is as active within the next ten years, the delightful old town, with its narrow streets, coquina walls, and low comfortable houses, will be transformed into a lively Yankee resort, with only the charming atmosphere left, the sole and only thing which innovation cannot remove or alter. It is sad to those who learned to love the quaint old place years ago in its picturesqueness to notice the inevitable changes which this age of progress seems to demand, and it must be with keen sorrow that the old Spanish and Minorcan settlers give up their ancient landmarks, one by one, to the despoiling hand of the new comer. The court house, which was one of the oldest buildings here I believe, has been entirely renovated under the magic touch of Uncle Sam, and new paint now glistens in its freshness where coquina walls were wont to awe the stranger with their accumulation of years. Here and there new, bright and modern looking dwellings dot the quiet streets, and those who saunter by catch glimpses of costly lace curtains, fringing plate glass windows, which would not be out of place in even Madison or Fifth Avenue. Some very fine private residences are now in process of erection — some of them costing twenty thousand dollars and upwards. Mr. Henry Ball, the well known New York jeweler, has a magnificent dwelling nearly completed, which is palatial in appearance. Mr. Howard, the owner or former owner of the Howard House, New York, has just moved into an elegant structure. Near him Mr. Ammiden is building. On the bay Mr. Edgar of New York, is erecting a fine residence, while Mr. Forbes, of Boston, and Aspinwall, of New York, have dwellings either complete or under way. There are several other wealthy and prominent Northern men who propose to reside here permanently during the winter. This peculiar class of people, with their liberal means and ideas, will yet metamorphose the old place, and completely overshadow the humbler houses. St. Augustine can never become a town of any commercial importance, but it is destined to be a place of elegant leisure, and a retreat for those whose means enable them to flee annually from the terrible winters of the North. I do not admire the judgment of those who are building or locating on the bay, where they will be exposed to the cutting east wind which, even in St. Augustine, has its terrors. The wiser builders ensconce themselves in the shelter of more retired streets.

HON. ROBERT TOOMBS.—This gentleman had just finished arguing a case in the Supreme Court, which afforded the fat fee of $5,000, and was in the highest possible spirits. There is a magnetism and talismanic influence about the genius of the General, which is irresistibly attractive. Possessed of infinite humor and the happiest conversational powers, few men are his equal in social life. But we are again admonished by the lateness of the hour to put a period to these desultory notes, and must therefore leave unrecorded the telling anecdotes of the ex-Confederate statesman and General. WASHINGTON.

THE NEW BANKRUPT LAW IN ALL ITS CHANGES—DISCUSSION OVER ABOLITION OF OFFICE OF REGISTER.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—The business of the House was confined to private bills. A bill was passed permitting a narrow gauge railroad to be laid on the public grounds at Old Point Comfort, Va.

John G. Boyle was nominated Attorney for the Eastern District of Texas.

SENATE.

A resolution was offered giving witnesses befor the Senate Committees four dollars per day and five cents per mile each way.

Bill for the relief of William H. Vesy. Passed.

Davis introduced a bill to authorize the Attorney General to settle the claims of the Government with the purchasers of its property at Harpers Ferry. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

The bankruptcy bill was resumed The amendment, offered by Sherman, to fix the limit of the term at ninety days, in which a party dishonoring his commercial paper can be adjudged a bankrupt, after much discussion was rejected. Yeas 15, Nays 29. The amendment requiring one-third of the creditors to force a debtor into bankruptcy was rejected.

Thurman said the clause now proposed to be amended had been subjected to the most severe criticism in the committee, and after careful consideration one-fourth of the number and one-third of the amount of the debts had been agreed to.

Carpenter said he come at the beginning of the session fully prepared to vote for the repeal of the bankrupt law, but after a thorough examination of the question he had come to the conclusion that to repeal the law would be detrimental to the debtor class. He would, therefore, vote for continuing the law, and would support the amendments of the Judiciary Committee, with such others offered in the Senate as he might deem advantageous.

The other amendments, with a few verbal changes, were adopted as reported by the Judiciary Committee.

The committee's amendments as passed by the Senate fix the time at forty days within which any banker, broker, merchant, trader, manufacturer or miner who has stopped or suspended, and not resumed payments of his commercial paper, shall not be deemed bankrupt, and prescribe that the fees, commission charges and allowances, excepting actual and necessary disbursements, of and to be made by the officers, agents, messengers, assignees, registers in cases of bankruptcy, shall be reduced to one-half of the allowances heretofore provided for. The Justices of the Supreme Court who are to make new rules and regulations in respect to this law are empowered to consolidate the duties of Register, Assignee, Marshal and Clerk, and to reduce the cost of charges to the end that prolixity, delay and unnecessary expense may be avoided.

Edmunds offered a new amendment conferring the jurisdiction in bankrupt cases upon any Circuit or District Court in the United States, which was agreed to. He also offered an amendment dispensing with the personal service of notice in all cases of claims not exceeding fifty dollars, and providing in cases where the amount should be under that sum, notice could be given by publication in the newspapers. Agreed to.

He also offered an additional section to the bill providing that it should be the duty of the Marshal of each District in the month of July in each year to report to the Clerk of the District Court in tabular form, to be prescribed by Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States—first, the number of cases in bankruptcy in which warrants have come to his hands; second how many of such warrants were returned, with the fees, costs, expenses and emoluments thereof; third, total amount of all other fees, costs, expenses, and emoluments, earned and received by him during the year, from or in respect to any matter on bankruptcy; fourth, a summarized statement of such fees, costs, and emoluments, exclusive of actual disbursements in bankruptcy, received or earned during the year; fifth, a summarized statement of all actual disbursements in such cases, and also requiring every Register to report, in like manner, the number of voluntary and compulsory cases in bankruptcy coming before him during the year, with the amount of assets and liabilities of the bankrupt, the amount and rate per cent. of all dividends declared and disposition of all such cases. Every assignee is required to make similar returns, and the clerk of such Court, in the month of August in each year, is required to transmit to the Attorney General a report of all cases pending and disposed of, dividends declared, disposition of cases, whether any officer has failed to make his report, etc.

Any violation of this section to be punished by dismissal from office and the party offending be guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction, to be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding one year. The section was adopted.

Thurman offered an amendment to abolish the office of register in bankruptcy and authorizing the several district courts to make such orders, and to take such steps as may be necessary to adjudicate and dispose of all such matters or proceedings in bankruptcy now pending before such register; also, giving the district courts power, where it may appear to be necessary or advisable, to appoint a special master of commissioners to perform any of the duties heretofore performed by Registers; such power to be also exercised by a Judge in chambers. No fees or compensation shall be paid to any such commissioner except such as shall be allowed by the court.

Thurman, in advocating the adoption of this amendment, said that in three-fourths of the districts of the United States, the Judges had ample time to discharge all the duties which would devolve upon them if the office of Register in Bankruptcy should be abolished, and in consideration of the complaints from all quarters of large amounts received by these officers as fees, he thought it a move in the right direction to abolish them.

Mr. Edmunds said his friend Thurman might have some prejudice on this subject that he was not aware of himself, and had, therefore, got a little off the track in this case. It might be that he would like to see so many Republicans put out of office.

Mr. Thurman said he did not know the politics of a single register in the United States, but from all accounts the Democrats had got a pretty good share. [Laughter.]

Mr. Edmunds—That may be, as there is very little of that thing going on but what the Democrats get a share. [Renewed laughter.]

The amendment of the gentleman, (Thurman) had been considered in a committee and rejected. In the amendments already agreed upon it was provided for a reduction in fees. To have work done efficiently under the bankrupt law it must be paid for, and he didn't think it advisable to impose this duty upon the courts.

Pending the discussion on Thurman's amendment to abolish the office of register, on motion of Cameron the Senate went into executive session, and after half an hour the doors re-opened and adjourned on no confirmations.

ELECTION CRIMES.

BALTIMORE, February 6.—In the United States District Court this morning Judge Giles presiding, in the case of Wesley E. Mason, Register First Election District, Essex county, indicted under the second section of the Act of Congress of May 31st, 1870, for striking from the list of qualified voters the names of fourteen colored persons, in October last, the jury rendered a verdict of guilty, and the Court imposed a fine of five hundred dollars and costs, amounting to six hundred dollars. Immediately thereafter the case of J. R. Hackett, indicted for intimidating voters at the polls in the same

THE ENGLISH ELECTIONS.

CONSERVATIVES STILL GAINING GROUND—THE PRESS ON THE RESULT.

LONDON, February 6.—The Parliamentary election was held yesterday, the Conservatives making one seat each in Belfast, Dover, Gravesend and Northampton. The Liberals gained a seat for Dumfriesshire and one for Coventry. Tipperary rulers were re-elected from Drogheada and Wexford. In the last Parliament those two places were represented by Liberals.

The Marquis of Lorne has returned from Argyleshire.

The first report that all the Liberal candidates were elected in Glasgow on Wednesday was incorrect; later returns show that the Conservatives gained one of the seats of the city. So far 420 members of the new Parliament have been elected. Of this number 327 are Conservatives and 193 Liberals and Home Rulers. Conservatives have been chosen for sixty-one seats that were occupied by Liberals in the last Parliament, and the Liberals have ousted 24 Conservatives.

Baron Mayr DeNathachied died to-day.

The Conservative candidates for Parliament were elected in Westminster yesterday by a large majority; the representatives in the last Parliament were a Liberal Conservative and a Liberal.

The Times of this morning says: It is now evident that the country has returned an adverse answer to Gladstone's appeal. The elections in Ireland may show unlooked-for results, but nothing is likely to restore the losses of the Liberals in Great Britain.

Disraeli is bound to accept office of the government, following his example in 1868, when he resigned without awaiting the re-assembling of parliament.

The Post in an editorial says that the blunders of the government are further than the average. Its exercise of power has been as absolute as it has been inaiscreet. It is immaterial whether the adverse results of the elections are due to the dissatisfaction of the country at the past, or the uncertainty regarding the policy of the government in the future.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATION.

BOSTON, February 6.—The Massachusetts Senate has, by a vote of 22 to 19, concurred in the House bill endorsing the proposed Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition.

In the United States District Court to-day, in the Frankling Savings Fund case, the counsel for the petitioners said that upon looking at the investment accounts of the debit side, amounting to $1,500,000 and credit, $500,000 were kept in lead pencil, subject to alteration, and it was very important that they should inspect all books to see whether such alteration had or had not been made. They thought it simply probable that the books had been tampered with, for on the very day the injunction was served they showed transactions to the extent of one hundred thousand dollars in addition. Upon examination it was found that within six months and after the institution had suspended payments and Cyrus Cadwalader's account was closed, he was paid the full sum, exceeding $1,500. Judge Cadwallader said this last assertion warranted the attention of the Court, and if the petitioners would amend their petition so as to include it as a fraudulent preference of a creditor by an insolvent debtor within six months, and the counsel for defendants would admit the fact, the case would be in shape for adjudication. The amendment was made, and the counsel would give the Court an answer before adjournment.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY SOUGHT TO BE MADE A NATIONAL AFFAIR.

WASHINGTON, February 6.—Senator Morrill, of Maine, has been appointed on the District of Columbia investigating committee vice Conkling, declined.

A petition will be presented to Congress in a short time, praying that body to make the 12th of February, the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, a national holiday.

The Cabinet session to-day was brief. Several members of the Civil Service Board were present and talked over matters in connection with that branch of the government with the President and Cabinet officers.

BIG COMMOTION OVER A BURSTED BANK.

PHILADELPHIA, February 6.—A meeting of the creditors of the Franklin Savings Fund, which has been placed in bankruptcy, was held at the Assembly buildings. About fifteen hundred persons were present, and great excitement prevailed. A report was read from a committee appointed at a previous meeting to wait on the principal officers of the defunct institution. The latter stated that the bank had failed to pay and had suspended; that $148,147 could be realized to-day to pay depositors in full. The bank building is owned by them. A lawyer, who had examined the books of the bank, said that $349,780 75 had been deposited. A committee of five was appointed to call a meeting of the depositors and remove the matter from the jurisdiction of the courts. After appointing William S. Hirst as counsel for the depositors, the meeting adjourned amid great confusion.

RUMORS are current here that Macon has a fast mayor, as he got away with a big senator in swapping stock.

LAST NIGHT was just of that character as to make a man wish to betake himself in doors to his shaded lamp and snug fireside.

CONSTITUTION OF THE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION. We keep this standing a few days on our fourth page for general information and for the convenience of the Directors.

HONEY.—There was considerable erecting of heads among the growing of game cocks at the capitol yesterday. Most of those in the basement in the room of Mr. Goodmenoven.

HIS POST.—Come rain or sunshine Mr. A. J. Scarboro, Messenger to the Senate, is always prompt at his post. Long may it be e'er his person 'prefix a mark to the foe man."

THE Atlanta Benevolent Association will meet this afternoon at three o'clock, at James' Hall. It is hoped that a large number will be in attendance as business of importance will be transacted.

COL. O. B. RICE.—This gentleman has a card in The Constitution. His references are such as to show beyond question that he is entirely competent to give satisfaction in tuning pianos.

MISCHIEF.—A little boy on Pratt street was much injured at getting into his hands yesterday a loaded gun, until by accident it fired off. The passion for fire is constitutional. Adam and Eve had it in Paradise.

The Directors of the Young Men's Library Association, on Thursday night, after their regular meeting, took a social cup of coffee, etc., at Pease's with Professor Mallon. While on their way they stopped at the studio of Mr. Ver Bryck, the artist, and viewed his paintings.

RUBBER CLOTHES.—Remember this weather that wet clothes not only by their coldness obstruct the perspiration, but their moisture by being absorbed, or sucked up into the body, greatly increases the danger. Colds often occasion fevers, rheumatisms and other diseases. If your clothing should become wet, change them if possible; if not, keep in motion until they dry.

PROF. NICHOLS' DANCING SCHOOL.—It is a great treat to be a spectator at James' Hall, and see the large number in attendance, and to witness the happy faces. Feet and bodies are educated until gestures and attitudes are clothed with an elegance which appeals to the sight and kindles within the heart a glow akin to that we feel while listening to the song of the birds, or gazing at the glories of a gorgeous sunset.

WILL IT CLEAR OFF?—This reporter was recently asked this question yesterday. He is not a graphic correspondence with "Old Probs," nor his sublunary calculations are uncertain enough, but the answer must be unsatisfactory as the fact as to Noah's grand-children, the African descendants, came to be black. Rest content, the sun will come out again with a sparkling eye "rejoicing as a strong man to run a race."

QUESTION.—That the Senate have the flag suspended in the Senate Chamber, above the picture of General Washington, either removed or shown that the dust and cobwebs may be removed from it. It presents anything but a neat appearance at present, and it is a shame that so filthy a thing should be suspended over the head of every gentleman.

MAD DOG.—On Thursday night about 10 o'clock in this city, whose husband was absent, was about to retire for the night, when some noise at the door attracted her attention. Upon opening it she espied a mad dog, who immediately ran into her house. Much later in the night she was aroused by noises at the door, but pretty soon the dog left the door, and by his furious barking, frightened every party who were doubtless endeavoring to enter the house by force. Is that dog endowed with knowledge?

Outrage Upon the Person of a State Road Employee.

MR. HUGH WRIGHT, foreman of bridge repairs on the Western and Atlantic Railroad, met with a sudden and horrible death last night. A train was on the side track near to the Agricultural Warerooms of J. Ben Wilson & Co. Mr. Wright started to between the cars to complete some work on the bridge, suddenly forcing him between the bumpers which struck about the lower part of the breast, crushing in his vitals with such terrible power as to force the blood out of his mouth. The alarm was given and the engine pulled out. Mr. Woodruff walked across one track and fell on his back dead.

He has been an employee of the Western and Atlantic Railroad for many years, and was highly esteemed. He leaves a wife and four children.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA, February 6, 1874.

Atlanta Circuit.

Nos. 94 and 95, argument concluded.

No. 1, Marcellus O Markham vs Elizabeth P O'Connor, administratrix; equity, from Fulton. Argued.

B H Hill & Son, Julius L Brown, for plaintiff in error.

L J Gartrell, Collier, Mynatt & Collier, Jackson & Clarke, contra.

At the conclusion of the argument of Mr Hill the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

The City Court.

The City Court met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment on Wednesday last, Hon. R. J. Cowart, Judge, presiding.

Daniel Sigman, who was charged with stealing a piece of lumber, worth 50 cents, from Benjamin Webb on the 17th of January last, filed his demand for a jury trial, and had it entered upon the minutes. He is defended by John A. Wimpey.

Dave Stokes was arraigned in two cases for stealing car brasses from the Western and Atlantic Railroad. The first case was nol pros'd by order of the Court. In the second case a verdict of not guilty was taken by consent. Messrs. Thrasher & Thrasher represented the prisoner.

Samuel Wilkins, the white man, who was sent to jail a few days ago from Justice Ezzard's Court for stealing a dozen and a half saw files from the store of Messrs. T. M. Clarke & Co., plead guilty to the charge of simple larceny. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs or go to the chain gang for six months.

Upon the conclusion of the above business, the City Court adjourned to meet again on the first Monday in March next.

The Justices' Courts.

The four negroes who were arrested by the police Thursday for stealing goods from the store of G. W. Jack, were tried by Justice Butt yesterday morning. Their names are Hurt Roberts, George Washington, Harry Wilburn, and John Smith. The first three were committed to jail. The latter was discharged, as the evidence failed to convert him with the crime. The value of the goods proven to have been stolen was $70, so that the prisoners will have to stand trial before the Superior Court for a felony. There have already been three George Washingtons sent from this county to the Penitentiary, and this will make the fourth when he arrives.

Justice Sasseen investigated the charge brought against John Lawless, by Policeman John W. Smith, of assault with intent to murder.

The facts were given in yesterday's CONSTITUTION, The prisoner was committed to jail. Mr. Goodwin represented the prosecution, and Mr. Thrasher the defence. The other courts were quiet.

Station House Report.

Police business slacked off considerably yesterday from what it has been for several days past. There were only five arrests, and these all for city offenses. Drunkenness and disorderly conduct are the charges.

Street Railroad of Augusta.

Editors Constitution: The House was occupied during the greater part of yesterday in the discussion of the rights of this road.

It appears that under the act of 1870 this corporation obtained the franchise of connecting the railroads terminating in the city of Augusta and of running locomotive engines on Washington street. Previously thereto it had obtained these rights by contract with the city of Augusta, which the Legislature confirmed in the act just indicated. The through freight system by which cotton and other staple articles are taken from the Mississippi to the Atlantic without breaking bulk has assumed considerable proportions, and the value of this franchise has grown accordingly.

This seems to have excited opposition against the street railroad, and the Legislature is now asked to deprive it of contract rights confirmed by a previous Legislature. The supporters of the measure, Messrs Lanham, Peabody and Butt, were earnest in their opposition to the railroad on the ground that it is a monopoly and inimical to the interests of those who are compelled to patronize it.

Messrs. DuBose, Mercer and Tutt contended that if the contract and ordinances amendatory thereof between the city of Augusta and the street Railroad were confirmed by the act of 1870, they cannot be disturbed by the Legislature, without a violation of the Constitution of the United States, which forbids the passage of any act impairing the obligation of contracts. The Legislature has the power to take away a franchise which it has given to a corporation, but not to interfere with contract rights which the corporation may have acquired in the legitimate use of its franchise. This doctrine and distinction has been announced in the Supreme Court of the United States, and seems to be sound in principle and wise in policy.

PERSONAL.—The Marietta Journal says: The Journal was honored this week by a visit from John M Clark Esq., for many years a member of the State Legislature from Savannah and a successful lawyer, and father of E. Y. Clarke, one of the gentlemanly proprietors of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION. We were pleased to see the old gentleman hale, hearty and full of life.

It is with much pleasure that we learn that Mr. D. M. Spence, at the solicitation of his former employers, has returned to his old position in the Western Railroad depot. No doubt every business man in West Point will be glad to hear of Mr. Spence's return. LaGrange Reporter.

H. I. Kimball Back in Atlanta.

Last night among the arrivals at the Kimball House was H. I. Kimball himself, who came on the midnight train by the Edisto road. Mr. Kimball returns after something more than two years' absence. He has grown quite fleshy, enjoys fine health, and is in excellent spirits. He brings with him his little daughter, who is somewhat out of health.

His stay the present visit is short, and of his own motion returns to Georgia to personally set himself right, and respond to any scrutiny. This is, at least, manly and courageous, and will ensure him a fair reception.

He has no definite plans as to length of stay.

THE third again has an enlightened press called attention to the fact that the advertisement of sales by the sheriff or marshal, was not an index of a want of prosperity. It is common to all cities and towns throughout the Union. Men won't pay their taxes until the last moment, because they can use their money to better advantage and reap a handsome harvest when money commands from 1 to 3 per cent. per month. Yet some provincial journals will insist that it is otherwise.

Whereas, In the appointment of this committee to revise the charter, it was contemplated that the reports of said committee should be made to the City Council, and

Whereas, No such report was made, and only at out fifty or sixty persons out of a population of 30,000 in the city of Atlanta have had an opportunity of considering and investigating the changes recommended by said committee; and

Whereas, The said changes as recommended by said committee have been enacted into the law by the Senate of Georgia striking out the clause submitting said changes to the people of Atlanta, thus depriving our people as a whole of expressing their approbation or dissent to the said changes, over the protest of our immediate representatives; therefore

Resolved, That this Council has confidence in the ability of the people of Atlanta to decide as to the merits or demerits of the proposed amendments, and, that we, in the name of the people of Atlanta most earnestly request our members of the House of Representatives to amend the Senate bill by adding a clause thereto, submitting the said changes to our people for their ratification or rejection.

Resolved, That we most earnestly appeal to the House of Representatives to allow our people an opportunity to say whether or not they desire the amendments to our charter, as proposed by the said Committee.

Resolved, That the Clerk of Council furnish each of our Representatives with a copy of these resolutions. Adopted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Gas Committee reported received on dividends on city gas stock, $5,772.

APPEAL CASES.

John M. Hill was arraigned before the Recorder on the charge of selling liquor in quantities less than one quart, and fined $30 and costs. He acknowledged the fact, but plead the custom. The quart bottles do not hold a quart, but were not sold for a less price than a quart. He appealed to Council. Referred to City Attorney and Mayor for investigation as to the law on this subject.

Mr. I Guthman was arraigned on a similar charge and with similar result.

Referred to City Attorney and Mayor for investigation as to the law on the subject.

Mr. Jackson Johnson was arraigned before the Recorder for disorderly conduct, insulting an officer, and using profane language, and fined $5 and costs. He appealed to Council. After hearing evidence he was found guilty and fined $8 and costs.

PUBLIC.

Council adjourned at 10 o'clock P. M.

DEBATE ON THE AUGUSTA STREET RAILROAD BILL.—The debate in the House yesterday on the bill to repeal the act of 1870, granting certain privileges to the Augusta and Summerville Street Railroad, was a fine one. Messrs. Lanham, Peabody and Butt favored the bill, and Messrs Dubose, Mercer and Tutt opposed it.

The speech of Mr. DuBose was bold and strong. Mr. Mercer, who is evidently the orator of the House, acquitted himself as he always does with eclat. His closing sentences were graphic, poetical and eloquent. Mr. Mercer is a gentleman of high culture.

SOUTHERN BRANCH NATIONAL SURGICAL INSTITUTE, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.—In consequence of an unavoidable delay in the work of fitting up machinery and appliances for the Southern Branch of the National Surgical Institute now established in this city, the proprietors announce that, for the present only, patients applying to them for treatment will be expected to procure board outside the Institute. In a few days the preparations for the accommodation of patients with board in the building will be completed. Doctors Wilson and Boland arrived from the Home Institute, at Indianapolis, on yesterday and are stopping at the H. I. Kimball House. Other surgeons, with a full corps of assistants and skilled workmen, will arrive here during the present week, bringing needed facilities and appliances for the prosecution of the great work before them. Meantime the doctors can be found at their new building on Wall street, opposite the Passenger Depot, north side, ready to meet their old patients and as many new ones as may desire to avail themselves of the benefit of their treatment.

NATURE'S CATHARTIC.—No medicine is needed to keep the bowels in order so long as nature's cathartic, the bile, flows freely and regularly from its source in the liver, and is of the right strength and quality. But the great biliary gland is easily disordered, and the consequences of its irregularities are serious. To bring it back to its natural condition when thus affected, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be taken at least twice a day until the desired object is attained. Constipation is due to a scant supply of bile, or to a lack of the stimulating element in that fluid. In either case mere purgation is useless. The liver must be compelled to yield the supply of bile necessary to remove the waste matter from the system at least once in twenty-four hours before a radical cure of costiveness can be accomplished. Hostetter's Bitters produces this effect. Its action upon the stomach and liver is direct and salutary, and through these organs it regulates and invigorates the whole frame.

...ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

The Atlanta Clio, Orator Association

...This society shall be called the Atlanta Benevolent Association.

Article 2. The object of the Association shall be to relieve the temporal wants of the poor, sick and afflicted of [illegible] to facilitate their employment, and to promote the physical and moral welfare of the [illegible]. But the Association is not to supersede the work of the churches in providing for the relief of their own poor, since this duty is devolved on them by the Author of Christianity, and cannot be transferred to any other body or association.

Article 3. The obligations of benevolence are divinely imposed. While, in the providence of God, there exist among us those whose condition, whether from sickness, misfortune or poverty, calls for charity, and affords opportunity to the kind and merciful for doing good. "For the poor shall never cease out of the land." "The poor ye have always with you; and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good." By the poor are understood not only the indigent and impoverished, but all classes of our suffering humanity.

Article 4. The law of labor is also divinely imposed. "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread," is the stern decree with reference to our fallen race. It is the duty of every one, in health and strength, to work, and by honest labor and industry earn his own living, as well as provide for those dependant on him. This law is a law of christianity, since it is plainly declared "that if any would not work, neither shall he eat." The Association do not consider that healthy able-bodied persons, who can find employment, are objects of charity. They will leave such to provide for themselves and cause their efforts to those in actual distress, particularly to widows and orphans in their afflictions, to the sick, diseased, and disabled, to the aged, helpless and infirm. But when necessary, the Association will assist those who are unoccupied and willing to work to procure employment as a means of subsistence.

Art. 5. The work of the Association shall be carried on with a view to the suppression of pauperism and its attendant evils; to discourage idleness, vice, vagrancy, street begging, vice and immorality; to excite and foster in the poor a spirit of honorable independence, to stimulate them to habits of industry, and of reliance on their own exertions for support.

Article 6. This Association shall be empowered, whenever it is thought to be advisable, to obtain a charter of incorporation in order to buy real estate, establish, conduct, and manage houses of industry and homes for the poor, the friendless and the afflicted, and to carry out such designs and schemes of usefulness as may be in harmony with its purposes and constitutions.

Article 7. Every person paying one dollar shall be considered a member of the Association for one year. The payment of five, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty five dollars at one time shall constitute the donor an honorary member. The payment of fifty dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of patron, while the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall constitute a life member.

Article 8. The officers of the Association shall be forty ladies and forty gentlemen, and shall consist of a President, one Vice President for each ward, a Secretary and a Treasurer, together with an Executive Committee of five persons, all of whom shall constitute a Board of Managers to be chosen annually by the Association. The President, Treasurer, and three members of the Executive Committee, shall be gentlemen. The Vice-Presidents, Secretary and two members of the Executive Committee shall be ladies. Official vacancies that may occur between the annual meetings may be filled at any meeting of the Board of Managers by their own vote.

Article 9. The board of managers shall have the general control of the work of the Association, with power to solicit funds and appoint collecting agents; to receive and disburse all moneys, groceries, fuel, provisions and articles of every description donated for the use of the Association and to frame the necessary rules and regulations by which the operations of the Association shall be carried on. The board shall divide the city into sections corresponding in size and boundaries with the several wards, and shall subdivide each ward into smaller districts, and shall appoint a permanent visiting committee for each district. The Vice President for each ward shall have the supervision of the visiting committees. It shall be the duty of these committees to search out and ascertain the condition of those that need assistance in their respective districts, and to apply such relief as the Board of Managers shall direct. But if they find persons in want or distress, who are members of any church in the city, they shall report them to the pastor of the church to which they belong, in order that they may be taken care of by the church.

Article 10. The Board of Managers shall be accountable to the Association, and at each annual meeting shall make a full report of all that has been done during the year.

Article 11. The annual meeting of the Association, for the election of a Board of Managers and the transaction of other business shall be held on the first Thursday in June, in every year.

Article 12. This Constitution may be changed at any annual meeting of the Association, by a vote of two-thirds of the members who may be present and vote.

OFFICERS:

President—Gov. Joseph E. Brown.

Vice Presidents, one for each Ward:

1st Ward—Miss Nellie Peters.

MODE OF DRAWING.

There will be upon the stage two glass wheels the contents of which can be seen by all the spectators, committees of two citizens in no way connected with the management will each of such wheels having first counted and examined, will place in the larger wheel 13,600 tickets exactly as many and having printed numbers from one to 13,600 corresponding to all the tickets sold. A similar committee, having first counted and examined, will place in tubes precisely alike the prizes which are placed in the smaller wheel. Both wheels will then be turned until their contents are thoroughly mixed, when a boy under fifteen years of age, blindfolded, will then draw from the larger wheel one of the 13,600 tickets, and handing it up in full view of the spectators and auditors, its number will be announced by the crier appointed for this purpose, so that all present may hear. The number will then be passed to the committee of citizens, who will say whether the number is correctly called. It will then be handed to a registrar, who will file it, and record it upon a book prepared for that purpose. A boy of the same age will then draw from the smaller wheel one of the tubes containing a prize, which will be opened and laid on the table in the view of the spectators and auditors. The value of the real estate prize will then be declared by the committee, who after such decision, will give it to another registrar to file and record. The number drawn will belong to the ticket bearing the number drawn immediately before it. This plan will continue, drawing first from the large wheel containing the tickets, and then from the small one containing the prizes, until all the tubes containing the prizes are drawn. An accurate record of the above will be kept and certified to by the committee of disinterested citizens officiating.

The Prizes below $300 in value are approximations, and will be determined and paid as follows: The numbers of all the Tickets sold being considered in a circle, numerically formed, and having the highest number, 13,600, and, the lowest, 1, brought together, then whatever number in this circle may be drawn determined to be entitled to the Capital Prize of $25,000 will be taken as a center, on each side of which the next 300 numbers in numerical order will be counted for the $10 Prizes, in all making an interval of 600 numbers. Capital the 600 nearest numbers, each of which will be entitled to a Real Estate Prize of $10. All the Tickets drawing larger Prizes will be excluded, and the circle extended to include 600 on both sides of the Capital, being 300 on each side, it being the purpose of the management not to duplicate Prizes.

MONEY—All money received from sale of Tickets will be deposited in Bank immediately on receipt of remittances.

TRANSFER OF TITLES.—Within ten days after the drawing, parties putting Real Estate on the scale under this Scheme, are required to make good, valid and unincumbered titles thereto to the Georgia Real Estate and Immigration Company—said Company obligating themselves to transfer such title to the holder of the Ticket to the party or parties who may draw such Prize of Real Estate.
